Re: The State v. Otis Robinson, Appellate Case No. 2013-002392

Dear Mr. Locklair:

We have received notification from the South Carolina Court of Appeals that a Notice of Intention to Appeal was filed in the above-captioned case, and you are listed as counsel for Mr. Robinson.

If you were court-appointed, this Office will take over your client's representation if you wish us to do so. We will need a copy of your order of appointment, or a letter from you on letterhead stating that you were court-appointed in this case.

If you were retained counsel at the trial, and your client is now indigent, the client may qualify for the services of this office only pursuant to the terms of South Carolina Appellate Court Rule 602(E). I have enclosed an affidavit of indigency. Please have your client complete all questions on the affidavit and have it notarized and returned to us as soon as possible. If we determine the client is indigent, we will handle the appeal, subject to Rule 602(e)(4), SCACR.

If you are retained and are planning to pursue this appeal on your own, I would be most appreciative if you would notify me immediately so that we may close our file in this case.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact me at the above address or telephone number.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Dudek
Chief Appellate Defender
