Dear Counsel:

Please note, this is the second deficiency letter to be sent requesting the following correction. Failure to correct the deficiency will result in the dismissal of this appeal.

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter:

- Since this is an appeal from a guilty plea, nolo contendere plea, or plea pursuant to Alford, Rule 203(d)(1)(B)(iv) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires "a written explanation showing that there is an issue which can be reviewed on appeal. This explanation should identify the issue(s) to be raised on appeal and the factual basis for the issue(s) including how the issue(s) was raised below and the ruling of the lower court on that issue(s). If an issue was not raised to and ruled on by the lower court, the explanation shall include argument and citation to legal authority showing how this issue can be reviewed on appeal."

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

SC Court of Appeals

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Melinda A. Knowles, who being duly sworn, deposes and says :

1. I represented the above-named defendant on March 11, 2014, at which time the defendant entered a guilty plea to his/her pending charge(s).
2. No issues of law or fact were raised before the Judge at that time that could be the basis for an Appeal in this matter, however, a restitution hearing was ordered to be heard by the presiding judge in Horry County during the week of April 7, 2014. After such hearing on May 29, 2014, the Honorable Judge R. Young, issued an Order regarding restitution specifying the total amount of restitution to be ($10,472.9) ten thousand four hundred seventy-two dollars and ninety-seven cents payable to Homewood Depot.
3. The defendant requested this appeal be filed based on the language used by the plea judge informing the client he/she has the right to appeal his/her guilty plea within ten (10) days.
4. I informed defendant that there were no issues to appeal at the time of her guilty plea. However, after the Court's determination of the restitution amount at the restitution hearing, it became apparent that the Presiding Judge did not account for all payment(s) made by Kathryn King to Homewood Depot. Evidence of such payment(s) were provided to the Court for review.

5. As a result of Judge R. Young's ruling, Defendant requested this Appeal be filed.
