Appellant's request for this Court to furnish the transcript is denied. As described in the letters to Appellant from this Court on June 19, 2014, June 3, 2014, and May 7, 2014, it is the Appellant's responsibility to order the transcript from the court reporter and to make satisfactory arrangements for the payment of the transcript. See Rule 207, SCACR. In order to continue with this appeal, within fifteen days, Appellant must serve and file a motion to order the transcript late, proof the transcript has been ordered from the correct court reporter, and proof satisfactory arrangements for the payment of the transcript have been made.
