ATTORNEY FOR PETITIONER

NOW COMES the Petitioner in the above captioned Post-Conviction Relief appeal, acting by and through her undersigned counsel, seeking rehearing pursuant to Rule 221, SCACR. Petitioner's Post-Conviction Relief appeal addressed eight (8) allegations in support of her claim that her right to effective assistance of counsel prior to and during her trial, as guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, was validated in the trial court. The Petition for Writ of Certiorari in this matter was denied by Order of this Honorable Court dated July 24, 2014 and attached hereto. Petitioner now prays that this Court might grant Petitioner the privilege of rehearing.

Petitioner respectfully submits that her Petition for Writ of Certiorari demonstrates that she meet her burden of proof in the lower court with regard to multiple allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel. She now respectfully asks that this matter be reheard. She seeks rehearing due to the gravity of her charge and the lengthy sentence involved in her case. Petitioner respectfully submits that her Petition for Writ of Certiorari documents the fact that she presented evidence and testimony in the Court of Common Pleas which warrants this Honorable Court's review of the decision of the circuit court to deny relief.

CONCLUSION

For all the reasons set forth above, the Petitioner now asks for rehearing on the issues raised in her Petition for Writ of Certiorari. She prays that the Writ be issued and that she be afforded the opportunity to fully brief for this Honorable Court's consideration the issues summarized in her Petition for Writ of Certiorari.

Respectfully submitted,
