SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Reeves:

I am in receipt of your $50.00 money order and other various documentation postmarked July 21, 2014. According to my records, I received a transcript request letter from you dated February 13, 2014. I responded to your transcript request letter on February 20, 2014, and notified you that the cost of the transcript would be $71.50. I am returning your $50 money order since it is not the correct amount for the transcript.

If you would still like to order the transcript in the above-referenced case, please send a certified check or money order (no personal checks, please) payable to Hollie Jenkins for $71.50. Under our rules, I have 60 days to complete the transcript. Upon receipt of a certified check or money order in the amount of $71.50, the 60 days will begin. If I have underestimated the number of pages, you will be notified prior to delivery of the transcript of the balance due. If I have overestimated the number of pages, you will be refunded the overpayment.

In the event I need an extension of time to complete the transcript, I will request an extension from Court Administration. You will be notified if the extension is granted.

I apologize for any prior confusion regarding the case number and caption in my previous letter to you.

Sincerely,

Hollie M. Jenkins
