Appeelate Case No. 2012-002082

[ Motion to Compel]

Dear Ms. Abbott Kitchings;

As the appellant in the above style matter, I am responsible for producing the record on appeal. The appeal is from the decision of Arbitrator John Devlin. Mr. Devlin's Decision is dated 4/17/2013.

In response to my letter to Mr. Devlin in which I requested the recording made by him using his handheld digital recorder during our arbitration meeting, Mr. Devlin advised that he did not record the proceedings. However, I personally saw that he was doing so, and so did my attorney, Mr. Me lee Daniels.

Further, when I later contacted Mr. Devlin's office and spoke to his legal assistant Laurie about the court reporter having access to Mr. Devlin's recordings to transcribe them for my Appeal. She expressed after looking over his information, "yes, you are on there."

Therefore, I move that the court direct Attorney John Devlin furnish to me the digital recordings and any notes he may have made from them, so that I may be better able to file my

Dear Hollie,
I have your letter responding to my request.

You seem to have located the Wrong Case: You list

Case: #2013-cp-23-03057 Stinson v. Hans and Franz.
I contacted the Greenville, Court house record department and They have my information. The lady claimed it was probably a filing error.
Therefore, your charge is probably not accurate. However we need to get this ball rolling back on track.

I would like to suggest that you take the requested amount I've included as a deposit. I was told this would be regularly done.
Further, and importantly please request an extension from the court administration.

I appreciate your cooperation with this matter. There are two other information glitches as well. Contact me as soon as you locate the transcript. Let's blend

I have to apologize for the errors. I have had two strokes and can no longer write by hand., so there is no preliminary copy.

Just straight from thought to paper.

Ps, Your stationary fooled me I filed it under Judge
Verdin's court with the additional info I just received.

[motion to Compel]

Dear Ms. Abbott Kitchings:

As the appellant in the above styled matter, I am responsible for producing the record on appeal. The appeal is from the decision of Arbitrator John Devlin. Mr. Devlin's decision is dated 4/17/2013.

In response to my letter to Mr. Devlin in which I requested the recording made by him using his handheld digital recorder during our Arbitration meeting, Mr. Devlin advised me that he did not record the proceedings. However, I personally saw that he was doing so as we talked. My attorney Mr. Lee Daniel agreed he saw Mr. Devlin using his handheld recorder during our arbitration. A copy of his reply is attached.

In addition, I later called Mr. Devlin's office and spoke to his legal Assistant, Laura about a court reporter picking up the recordings to be transcribed. She paused and expressed to me "Yes, you are on there."

Therefore I move that the court direct Attorney John Devlin to furnish to me these digital recordings and any and all notes he has made from them, in order for me to prepare for my appeal properly.
