S.C. SUPREME COURT

RE: The State vs. Charvus Tarrell Nesbitt
Appellate Case No. 2012-212222

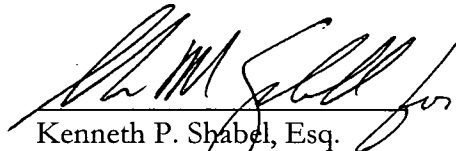

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I received your letter dated July 30, 2014 regarding the possible scheduling of argument in this case for this coming October 7th, 8th, or 9th.

My daughter is scheduled for a major surgery on October 8th for which the family court has given me protection. I would very much prefer that the arguments in this case not be held on any of those dates which I hope to spend with my family.

I thank you for your consideration in this matter, and please do not hesitate to contact me if there is any other information that you may need.

Best Regards,

Kenneth P. Shabel, Esq.
