Re: The State v. Brian Z. Morton
Appellate Case No. 2014-001438

Dear Mr. Morton:

This office is in receipt of your "notice and motion to appeal the order denying motion to relieve counsel and set bond". It is a general rule of law that a criminal defendant may not appeal until sentence has been imposed. State v. Miller, 289 S.C. 426, 346 S.E. 2d 705 (1986). From reviewing your material, it is clear no trial has taken place. Therefore, the Court can take no action on your motion.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy

CLERK
