Re: Popie Lown Roberts v. Health Sciences Foundation
Appellate Case No. 2014-001085

Dear Ms. Volpe:

I write to follow up on my letter of May 16, 2014 in which we made the initial request for a copy of the transcript of the case tried before the Honorable Judge J.C. Nicholson, Jr., Circuit Court Judge, in Charleston County (2013-CP-10-2243) and my letter of June 24, 2014 in which we enclosed our firm's check as payment for the transcript.

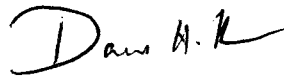

Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules provides that the court reporter is "to transcribe and deliver the transcript no later than 60 days after the date of the request." Delivery of the transcript is past due and, as of today, we have not received anything from your office.

The rules provide for an extension of time to complete the transcript but it is our understanding that you have not requested an extension from the Office of Court Administration. Please see the attached letter, dated July 29, 2014, in which the Court of Appeals confirms that it is not aware of any extension request from you.

May I ask that you advise us as soon as possible as to the status of the transcript?

Sincerely,

David H. Kunes, Esq.

Re: Popie Lown Roberts v. Health Science Foundation
Appellate Case No. 2014-001085

Dear Counsel:

Our records indicate that the transcript in the above matter should have been delivered. As of today's date, we have not received any information indicating that the court reporter has been granted an extension. Further, you have not notified us that you have failed to receive the transcript, nor have we received your initial brief.

If you have not yet received the transcript, Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules requires you to contact the Office of Court Administration. The address for Court Administration is as follows:

South Carolina Office of Court Administration
1015 Sumter Street, Suite 201
Columbia, SC 29201

RECEIVED

AUG 04 2014

SC Court of Appeals

Be sure to copy the Court and opposing counsel with all correspondence concerning the transcript.

Please advise the Court of the status of the transcript within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, or your appeal may be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
