

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

First Piedmont Federal Savings and Loan Association, Gaffney, South Carolina, Respondent,

v.

J. P. Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2012-207986

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion to stay this appeal and to request leave to file a motion to set aside the judgment in the trial court. Respondent filed a return, opposing the motion because Appellant's motion is not accompanied by any documentation supporting its entitlement to relief or bearing upon the likelihood of success if said motions were filed. After careful consideration, Appellant is required to submit a memorandum in support of its motion within ten days, excluding the filing date of this order.
