Re: E*Trade Bank v. Kalman
Appellate Case No. 2014-000687

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

According to my file, the transcript in this matter was ordered on March 17, 2014. Therefore, it was due on May 16, 2014.

I have not seen any correspondence requesting or granting an extension for the preparation of the transcript. Also, I have not received any correspondence from appellants' counsel regarding the status of the transcript. I have called, e-mailed, and written him to inquire about the status of the transcript, but I have not received a response.

If the transcript has not been delivered, and if no extension has been granted for the delivery of the transcript, then I would request that the appeal be dismissed as a result of appellants' failure to comply with Rule 207(a)(5), SCACR.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Lydon
