NOW COMES the Petitioner in the above captioned Post-Conviction Relief appeal, acting by and through his undersigned counsel, seeking rehearing pursuant to Rule 219, SCACR. Petitioner's Post-Conviction Relief appeal addressed multiple allegations in support of his claim that his right to effective assistance of counsel prior to and during his guilty plea proceeding, as guaranteed by the Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, was violated in the circuit court. The Petition for Writ of Certiorari in this matter was denied by Order of this Honorable Court dated August 5, 2014 and attached hereto. Petitioner now prays that this Court might grant Petitioner the privilege of rehearing.

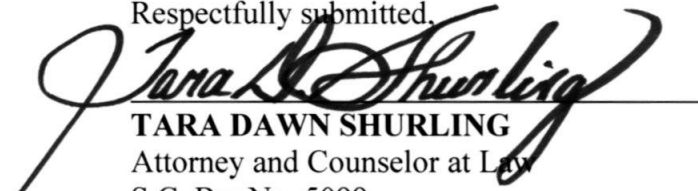

Petitioner respectfully submits that his Petition for Writ of Certiorari demonstrates that he meet his burden of proof in the circuit court with regard to multiple allegations of ineffective assistance of counsel. He now respectfully asks due to the gravity of the charges and sentences involved in his case and the nature of the allegations raised, that rehearing be granted.

Alternatively, Petitioner would seek a full written opinion from this Honorable Court addressing all the allegations raised in his case in order that he might have the ability to seek review of his case by the Supreme Court of South Carolina.

CONCLUSION

For all the reasons set forth above, the Petitioner now respectfully asks for rehearing on the issues raised in his Petition for Writ of Certiorari.

Respectfully submitted,
