Re: Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. vs Dorothy Sistrunk
Civil Action Case #2008-CP-38-1024
Appellate Case #2014-001683

To Attorney Anzelmo,

Please accept my apology. You did not begin your appearance in this case by misstating facts like Elizabeth Scott Moise, James H. Burns and/or Brian A. Calub. You are absolutely right and it appears I have been; once again, victimized by my own expectations. My expectations have been proven...again...to be misguided. Judge Goodstein did deny my Motion for a New Trial as you stated in your letter dated August 20, 2014. I did not include Judge Goodstein's denial of the Motion because I was expecting a separate hearing, notification, discussion and/or Motion. This misguided belief comes from expecting Judge Goodstein to follow the same judicial standards as Lower Court Judges in the states to which I have access to information and proceedings; i.e., Texas, Indiana, New York, Florida, Alaska, Illinois, Missouri, Ohio and California, just to name a few. It was and is a false expectation. There is no mandate for South Carolina Judges to treat Pro Se Litigants with respect. Please accept my sincerest apology. This letter is marked as Exhibit 362 and shall be included in the Record on Appeal.

Respectfully and Sincerely Submitted,

/s
Dorothy Sistrunk
