In Re: The Appeal of
Coral Resorts, LLC, et al. etc., Respondents
Versus
Ted Morris, et al, etc., Appellants
Appellate Case No. 2013-000920

Dear Judge Few,

Greetings!

On a former day, the Court entered an Order, in the above captioned Case, to the effect that the Court would send the Remittitur, in this Case, to the Lower Court, on August 25, 2014, in the event that the Case had been Settled. However, please be advised that, although most of the Parties have reached a Settlement; nevertheless, as of this date, the Settlement Agreement has not been signed by the Parties. As such, as of this date, this Case is not Settled.

Also, although the Parties contemplate that the Settlement will be "private;" nevertheless, there is an aspect of the Settlement Agreement that will require the Court's approval. In that regard, Judge Carmen Mullen has scheduled a Hearing, for Wednesday, September 17, 2014, to consider that aspect of the Settlement.

Therefore, I respectfully request that the Court please not send the Remittitur to the Lower Court, on August 25, 2014. Further, I respectfully request that the Court either reinstate the Appeal, as previously requested by the Appellants, in their Motion, or, in the alternative, to delay sending the Remittitur, until September 25, 2014, to enable the Parties to sign the Settlement Agreement, and to have the Court Hearing.

In the event that you have any questions, or desire clarification of any of the points addressed in this correspondence, please advise. Once again, thank you for your continued cooperation in this regard.

Sincerely,

John V. Esposito, J.D.
