

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Bilal A. Al-Haqq, #126806, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-001122

ORDER

---

This is an appeal from the Administrative Law Court's (ALC) order received by Appellant on April 23, 2014. Although Appellant's initial proof of service of the Notice of Appeal indicates Appellant timely served Respondents with the Notice of Appeal, Appellant's proof of service dated July 24, 2014, shows that service on the ALC was not timely. Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed. See Rule 203(b)(6), SCACR ("When a statute allows a decision of the administrative law court or agency (administrative tribunal) to be appealed directly to the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals, the notice of appeal shall be served on the agency, the administrative law court (if it has been involved in the case) and all parties of record within thirty (30) days after receipt of the decision."); Rule 263(b), SCACR ("The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended or shortened by the appellate court, or by any judge or justice thereof." (emphasis added)).
