

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Robert Koon, 227826, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-000803

ORDER

Appellant has filed two motions for judicial assistance with this court, requesting a copy of his initial brief filed June 20, 2014, and requesting that this court order Respondent to file the record on appeal or provide the materials for the record on appeal. Appellant has also filed a motion requesting that this court order the Administrative Law Court and Respondent to provide him with a certified copy of their entire files pertaining to Appellant without cost. Additionally, Appellant requests that this court provide him with the entire files for cases 2011-200608, 2014-001266, and 2014-000803 without cost. Appellant's motions are denied.¹ As to Appellant's request for a copy of his initial brief he alleges was filed on June 20, 2014, we have no record of this filing. We received Appellant's initial brief and designation of matter filed July 22, 2014, and Respondent has served and filed its initial brief and designation of matter.

Respondent has filed a motion to deny Appellant's designation of matter. We construe that as a motion to strike portions of Appellant's designation of matter and grant the motion. Within twenty days, Appellant shall serve and file an amended

¹ This court declines to consider Appellant's motion to reconsider the denial of his motion to appoint counsel. See Rule 240(i), SCACR ("This court will not entertain petitions for rehearing on a motion or petition unless the action of the court on the motion or petition has the effect of dismissing or finally deciding a party's appeal.").

designation of mater that includes only those matters presented to the Administrative Law Court. See Rule 210(c), SCACR ("The Record shall not, however, include matter which was not presented to the lower court or tribunal.").
