

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Richard Hough, Appellant,

v.

Angela Hough, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-000084

ORDER

Appellant's motion to file an amended designation of matter is granted. Appellant's designation is accepted as filed. Respondent's motion to vacate the clerk of court's order is denied. Furthermore, because the amended designation of matter has been accepted, this Court need not act on Respondent's prior motion to compel and request to file a return because they are moot.
