Dear Ms. Kitchings

There has not to be some kind of Great Mistake concerning the order dismissing my appeal filed against SCDC case # 2013ALJ40704AP. I don't want to disparage, or disrespect this court or its function when it comes to justice, but I was at the point where I felt totally defeated in my expectation from this court.

Please be advised that I receive a notice from the Adamin Law Court sometime back in February 2014. I then ATtemp to file an appeal to your court. My Brief and paperwork was filed and I receive the Above Appellant Case # 2014-000369

However your firm stated that a proof of service had not been provided stating the motion to proceed in forma pauperis served. But a proof of service was filed indicating a notice of appeal had been served. I received this paperwork on 4-2-14.

I received an Order endorsing my Affidavit to proceed without prepayment of fee. This was Mail June 30 and received July 2 2014. The Appellants initial brief and designation was filed and served on All defendant(s) including One to the South Carolina Court of Appeals. Back in February 2014. The Only matter that needed to be cleared up was the issue of forma pauperis. I ask you to check the records and see that a brief was served back in Feb.

Thank you
