Re: Faye M. Mathis v. Chris Dorfler
Appellate Case No. 2013-002070

Dear Ms. Mathis:

We received your most recent filing on September 15, 2014. We are returning these documents to you since they do not meet the requirements for a record on appeal. Upon review, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter:

- The document is improperly paginated. Specifically, pursuant to Rule 210(c), SCACR, each page of the record on appeal shall be numbered consecutively beginning with the index.
- The number of copies provided is not in compliance with Rule 210(b), SCACR. Please provide 14 copies, bound as per Rule 267(d), and an unbound original copy.
- A proof of service has not been provided. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.

- The document is not accompanied by the required certificate of counsel.

Very truly yours,
