Re: Bank of America v. Kermit White
Appellate Case No. 2014-001656

Dear Mr. White:

Our records indicate that the transcript in the above matter should have been requested no later than August 8, 2014. As of today's date, we have not received any information indicating that an extension has been granted to the court reporter. Our records reflect that the time for ordering the transcript has expired. Within ten days of the date of this letter, you must file a copy of the letter showing that you have ordered the transcript directly from the court reporter, along with a motion requesting permission to order the transcript outside of the filing deadlines set by Rule 207 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

Please advise the Court of the status of the transcript within ten (10) days of the date of this letter, or your appeal will be dismissed.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Jenny Abbott Kitchings". The signature is written in a cursive style and includes a large, sweeping flourish at the end.
