Re: Appellate Case No. 2014-001873

Dear Clerk,

I have received your letter of September 4, 2014 wherein you request that I provide a written explanation as to why the determination made by the PCR judge is improper. As an officer of the Court, I am unable to set forth any arguable basis that the determination that the PCR application did not comply with the filing procedures of the Uniform Post-Conviction Procedure Act was improper.

As to your request for a written explanation of issues which can be raised regarding petitioner's guilty plea, I am unable to provide a written explanation showing there is an issue which can be reviewed on appeal. I am forwarding copies of your letter and mine to petitioner for his review.

Yours very truly,

Caroline Horlbeck
