

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Ashley II of Charleston, L.L.C., Plaintiff,

v.

PCS Nitrogen, Inc., Defendant-Third-Party Plaintiff,

v.

Ross Development Corporation; Koninklijke DSM N.V.;
DSM Chemicals of North America, Inc; James H.
Holcombe; J. Holcombe Enterprises, L.P.; J. Henry Fair,
Jr.; Allwaste Tank Cleaning, Inc.; Robin Hood Container
Express; and the City of Charleston, Third-Party Defendants.

Appellate Case No. 2013-001766

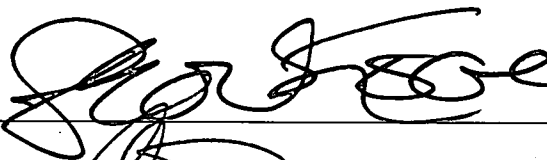

---

ORDER

---

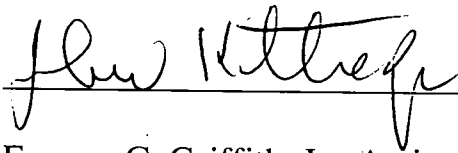

Because this Court's opinion makes clear that PCS is not entitled to indemnification from Ross for any liability associated with contamination after the 1966 closing, the petition for rehearing is denied.

The motion to supplement the record is denied.

_____
C.J.

_____
J.

_____
J.

J.

Eugene C. Griffith, Jr., Acting Justice, not participating

Columbia, South Carolina

September 25, 2014

cc:

Hon. Margaret B. Seymour

Wm. Howell Morrison, Esquire

George Trenholm Walker, Esquire

Thomas McRoy Shelley, III, Esquire

Daniel Simmons McQueeney, Jr., Esquire

John B. Williams, Esquire

Sandra Kaczmarczyk, Esquire

Ms. Mary E. Deal