Request for Emergency Motion to Stay

I Harold Wilson am requesting a motion to stay while my case is pending (appeal). I am 51 years old and disabled on SSI. Me and my mother brought this house in 2009 as a foreclosure and fixed it up. Me and my wife have exhausted all our expenses in fixing this place up and can not afford to move. The certified letter they said they sent me telling me to move out Feb 29 2011. I never recieved. I obtained a copy of the certified signature they said they sent me telling me to move, but it looks clear to me that's not my signature. If you look on my I.D you can tell. My mother Dorothy Hatcher who is the coowner with me of this house is terminally ill and in a nursing home. She has not eaten in 21 days now and her health is rapidly declining. Her sister Cynthia Barne is trying to sell the house right away before she dies so I want get it. I am my mothers agent on her living will and her representative in her will. I am requesting the court of appeal to consider my motion to stay while my appeal is pending. Thank you for all the
