

IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA SUPREME COURT
Appellate Case no: 2014-001349

Mr. Unula B. Abebe #285447

PETITIONER

vs.

State of South Carolina

RESPONDENT

Amended Rule 260(a) motion to Reopen Case

On August 28 2014, I received an order of dismissal dated August 26 2014, from the clerk. Said order stated that my case is being dismissed, the court didn't receive letters regarding ordering the transcript.

I believe dismissal is a little drastic for such a minor offense even though the rules allow dismissal for not abiding by the rules.

Therefore I am filing this motion to reopen the case while providing you with the letters in question. Exhibit-A is my July 16 2014 transcript request. Exhibit-B is the letter from the S.C. Court Administration, completing the arrangement. As you can see by Exhibit-B, arrangements for payments and delivery were made. It was my mistake in not serving the court.

The letters have nothing to do with the merits of my appeal nor whether or not I am entitled to relief, so you shouldn't be so drastic by dismissal without first ruling on the merits of my grounds for relief. It's the civilized thing to do. Thank you!

Based on the foregoing, I ask that this case be reopened.

Dear, Ms. Sullivan

Your last letter was very vague so I want to ask you a question just to make sure everything is understood. Did you finish creating the transcript of my Feb. 25, 2014 P.C.R Hearing? Please answer that question. THANKS!
