The South Carolina Court of Appeals

In the Matter of Cyril J. Okadigwe

Appellate Case No. 2014-001006

ORDER

Appellant is attempting to appeal from an order of the State Board of Pharmacy. Because the proper appellate forum is the Administrative Law Court, we transfer this case to the Administrative Law Court. See S.C. Code Ann. § 40-1-160 (2011) (providing a person aggrieved by a final action of a professional board may appeal the decision to the Administrative Law Court); Rule 204(a), SCACR ("In the event that the notice of appeal is filed in the wrong appellate court, the appellate court in which the matter is filed shall issue an order transferring the case to the appropriate appellate court."); see e.g. In re November 4, 2008 Bluffton Town Council Election, 385 S.C. 632, 641, 686 S.E.2d 683, 688 (2009) (invoking Rule 204(a), SCACR, and transferring the case to the circuit court because it was the proper appellate forum).
