Dear Mrs. Kitchings:

SC Court of Appeals

Today (9/15/14) I received a letter from you date 9/10/14 + stamped received by Lee C. I mail room on 9/11/14. I read + saw that I have ten (10) to provide the court with the necessary info. These people have cut that down to 5 days. And the thing is that I do not have any access to Rule 203 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, due to the facts

- #1 The Librarian here at Lee C. I has banned me from obtaining any + all legal materials for an very minor reason that I had absolutely no control of.
- #2 I am in Solitary Confinement + I am not allowed to use the Law Library Computer as needed, + the staff reasons are, they do not have enough staff members to assist with escorting me from the cell + that the computer is broken. (which is a lie)
- # I've hired an Attorney, Mr. Tommy A. Thomas to represent me with this Administrative issue + he was not even allowed to file an Initial Brief with the ALC. Therefore, I paid him $2,000.00 for basically no reason at all. I really + truly do not know how to file an Notice of Appeal to the Courts, but I will try my best. Even though I do not know what to do. But, someone told me to just basically copy one of the Common Pleas forms + put Notice of Appeal on it. But, I would want to first request for an Extension so that I may obtain all of the necessary info from my Attorney. Do you think that may be possible at this time? I guess is this me asking the Courts for an Motion for Extension. I am doing my best right now to get a staff member to allow me to call my Attorney about this info that I need ASAP. And, I would also need additional time to contact my other Attorney Mr. Michael J. Polk so that I can pay the filing fee. Thank you And God Bless us All!

Yours Truly
