RE: Samuel T. Brick, Appellant v. Richland County Planning Commission and Fairways Development, LLC, Intervenor, Respondents. Appellate Case No. 2014-000583.

Dear Madam Clerk:

I received this date a copy of the request for a two week extension (up to October 3, 2014) for respondent Richland County Planning Commission to file its initial response and designation of matter in the referenced case. Yesterday, September 22, 2014, I received the Initial Brief of Intervenor/Respondent Fairways Development LLC.

Under Rule 208, SCACR, as Appellant I have ten days from the date of service to file my reply brief. The Rule is unclear as to whether the date starts with the service to me or the service to the court but I understand the time to be the service to me. With the case having two different parties providing respondent briefs, I understand it is better practice to answer both by one reply brief. This is my current plan unless you notify me of a different requirement. Accordingly, my reply brief regarding both respondents would be due ten days after October 3, on October 13. Please advise as soon as possible if the request for an extension by Richland County Planning Commission is denied or changed and of any action on the request. Also please advise if my suggested mode of one reply brief in answer to both respondent briefs is acceptable.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Samuel T. Brick, Appellant, Pro Se

SC COURT OF APPEALS

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

This letter is to request a fourteen day extension of time to file the Initial Brief of Respondent Richland County Planning Commission and its Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal in the above referenced appeal. Other obligations and deadlines have prevented me from completing this brief by the current deadline. Specifically, I had two other briefs due in your Court on September 19, 2014; a lengthy response brief that was filed in the United States District Court on September 18, 2014; and oral argument at the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals in Richmond, Virginia on September 17, 2014.

By my calculations, the Initial Brief of Respondent Richland County Planning Commission and its Designation of Matter will be due on or before October 3, 2014. I have enclosed my firm's $25.00 check for the filing fee. If you require a formal motion, please advise.

Thank you very much for your consideration of this request.
