RE: Appeal, State v. Earl Graham

Dear Mr. Searous:

Please find enclosed an original of a sua sponte Appeal by my client, Earl Graham, from a revocation of a bond proceeding held in the General Sessions Court of Richland County on September 11, 2014.

I am court appointed to represent Mr. Graham on two counts of arson in the second degree and two counts of filing false insurance claims. Mr. Graham is an individual who takes my appointment as his third appointed counsel, to require me to do all sorts of unrelated matters for which I am not appointed.

After his revocation of bond by Judge Diane Goodstein, Mr. Graham then sent me this original of what appears to be an appeal. Mr. Graham had, after the revocation of bond by Judge Goodstein, "fired" me, and I am at a loss as to understood what my responsibilities are in this matter.

I submit this to you for whatever purpose Mr. Graham has in this matter and I am contacting him so that he will know that this has been done.

Yours very truly,

John Delgado
