Re: State v. Robert Prang
Appellate Case No. 2014-938

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

On June 9, I received a letter from Andrew Potter informing me he was not my attorney for the above mentioned case as was stated to me in an earlier dated letter from your office.

At that time I wrote a letter to you, and also, I wrote a letter to appellate defense requesting an attorney.

On July 3 I received a letter from Kimberly McColl Administrative Coordinator at Appellate Defense. It states that they have not received notification of appeal from the court of appeals and do not have a case for me in their office. Therefore are unable to help me.

I realize my notice to Appeal was lacking in certain areas but due to no fault of my own I ~~am~~ am unable to correct the notice of appeal. This is due mainly to the fact that Pickens County has to date refused to send me a copy of the ~~do~~ sentencing sheet.

Therefore it is impossible for me to comply with the courts request.

Now I again beg the court for legal representation to protect my rights and guide me through this difficult process.
