STATEMENT OF CASE

This matter comes before this Honorable Court pursuant to the appeal of Billy Lisenby (“appellant”), an inmate incarcerated with the South Carolina Department of Corrections (“SCDC”). Appellant was convicted of Disrespect, offense 836 under SCDC Policy OP-22.14, Inmate Disciplinary System, following a disciplinary hearing.

(R.p. ____ ) Appellant lost 30 days of good time due to the disciplinary conviction.

(R.p. ____).

Appellant filed a Step One Grievance on December 24, 2012, challenging his 836 conviction. (R.p. ____). This grievance was investigated and denied. (R.p. ____).

Appellant subsequently filed a Step Two Grievance on February 6, 2013, which was also investigated and denied. (R.p. ____). Appellant then appealed to the Administrative Law Court. (R.p. ____).

After the parties filed briefs, the ALC affirmed SCDC’s final decision, finding the disciplinary hearing comported with due process. The ALC also ruled Appellant’s disciplinary conviction was supported by sufficient evidence. (R.p. ____).

Appellant now seeks review of the ALC’s decision. For the reasons that follow, SCDC respectfully requests that the ALC’s decision be affirmed.

STANDARD OF REVIEW

S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-610(B) provides the applicable standard of review:

The review of the administrative law judge's order must be confined to the record. The reviewing tribunal may affirm the decision or remand the case for further proceedings; or it may reverse or modify the decision if the substantive rights of the petitioner have been prejudiced because of the finding, conclusion, or decision is:

- (a) in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions;
- (b) in excess of the statutory authority of the agency;
- (c) made upon unlawful procedure;
- (d) affected by other error of law;
- (e) clearly erroneous in view of the reliable, probative and substantial evidence on the whole record; or
- (f) arbitrary or capricious or characterized by abuse of discretion or clearly unwarranted exercise of discretion.

See also S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-380(5); Lake v. Reeder Constr. Co., 330 S.C. 242, 498 S.E.2d 650, 653 (Ct. App. 1998).

In an appeal of the final decision of an administrative agency, the standard of appellate review is whether the ALC's findings are supported by substantial evidence. See S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-610(B). A reviewing Court shall not substitute its judgment for that of the ALC as to findings of fact, but it may reverse or modify decisions which are controlled by error of law or are clearly erroneous in view of the substantial evidence on the record as a whole. Id. In determining whether the ALC's decision was supported by substantial evidence, the Court need only find, considering the record as a whole, evidence from which reasonable minds could reach the same conclusion that the ALC reached. DuRant v. S.C. Dep't of Health & Environmental Control, 361 S.C. 416, 420, 604 S.E.2d 704, 706 (Ct. App. 2004). The mere possibility of drawing two inconsistent conclusions from the evidence does not prevent a finding from being supported by substantial evidence. Id.

ARGUMENT AND CITATION OF AUTHORITY

I. APPELLANT WAS AFFORDED ALL CONSTITUTIONALLY REQUIRED DUE PROCESS.

Prison disciplinary cases are not criminal trials in federal or state courts. Instead, they are administrative hearings in an institutional setting. Therefore, Due Process in prison disciplinary hearings is substantially less than would be required in a criminal trial before a court. Due Process requires the following in prison disciplinary cases:

- a) notice of charges;
- b) disclosure of evidence against defendant (may be limited);
- c) opportunity to be heard;
- d) no right to confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses;
- e) neutral and detached hearing body;
- f) aid of counsel substitute or other substitute aid where inmate is illiterate or complex case (not attorney);
- g) written statement by the fact-finder as to the evidence relied upon.

Wolff v. McDonnell, 418 U.S. 539, 566 (1974).

The requirements enumerated in Wolff were complied with in this case. The Disciplinary Report and Hearing Record demonstrate that Appellant had notice of the charge. (R.p. ____). The record also reveals there was proper disclosure of evidence due to the fact that the Incident Report was read during the disciplinary hearing. (R.p. ____).

Furthermore, Appellant was afforded an opportunity to be heard at the hearing; however, Appellant refused to attend the hearing. (R.p. ____). There was a neutral and detached hearing body at the hearing, an SCDC disciplinary hearing officer. (R.p. ____). Appellant was provided with a counsel substitute, and there was disclosure of the written statement of the hearing officer's findings. (R.p. ____).

There was ample evidence to support Appellant's disciplinary conviction. During the hearing, the hearing officer read the incident report written by Officer G. Bobo stating that while he (Officer Bobo) was giving juice to inmates on the East Wing, Appellant began using profanity towards him saying, "You nothing but a stanky ass cracker mother fucker" and "You dick sucking ass." (R.p. ____). Appellant's language was vulgar and inappropriate, amounting to a violation of the Disrespect- 836 offense. The hearing was held in Appellant's absence due to Appellant's refusal to be stripped down/searched prior to the hearing. (R.p. ____). Although Appellant argues that the hearing was wrongfully held in his absence, it was his own conduct that led to Appellant's inability to attend the hearing. Accordingly, the hearing was held in Appellant's absence.

The ALC subsequently ruled that appellant's conviction was sufficiently supported by the evidence. (R.p. ____). Moreover, there was nothing in the record to suggest the agency's decision was arbitrary, capricious, or the result of personal bias or prejudice.

II. RESPONDENT'S FINAL AGENCY DECISIONS ARE SUPPORTED BY SUBSTANTIAL EVIDENCE.

A reviewing court will not disturb the findings of an administrative agency if those findings are supported by substantial evidence on record as a whole. Pearson v. JPS

Converter & Indus. Corp., 327 S.C. 393, 489 S.E.2d 219 (Ct. App. 1997). “Substantial evidence” is evidence which, considering the record as a whole, would allow a reasonable mind to reach conclusion that the administrative agency reached to justify its action. Lark v. Bi-Lo, Inc., 276 S.C. 130, 276 S.E.2d 304 (1981). The possibility of drawing two inconsistent conclusions from the evidence does not prevent an administrative agency’s finding from being supported by substantial evidence. Grant v. S.C. Coastal Council, 319 S.C. 348, 461 S.E.2d 388 (1995). Administrative agencies are afforded wide latitude in making decisions, as shown in the deferential standard of appellate review. Heater of Seabrook, Inc. v. Public Serv. Comm’n, 332 S.C. 20, 503 S.E.2d 739 (1998).

All credible evidence presented at Appellant’s hearing indicates Appellant was guilty of the disciplinary offense. The disciplinary hearing officer stated he found Appellant was guilty based upon Officer Bobo’s Incident Report. Furthermore, the record conclusively establishes that the “substantial evidence on the whole record” supports Respondent’s final agency decision. (R.p. _____).

Appellant has not carried his burden of proving that the decision of the Department is clearly erroneous, or arbitrary or capricious, or an abuse of discretion. See Porter v. S.C. Public Serv. Comm’n, 333 S.C. 12, 507 S.E.2d 328 (1998). Consequently, SCDC’s decision should be upheld.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for all the reasons stated above, this Court should affirm the Department of Corrections’ decision in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

CORRECTIONS
