Dear Ms. Bryan,

Per our last conversation on September 23rd and my letter of September 17, 2014, please be advised that I have moved to be relieved of counsel for Shayla. The Court of Appeals currently has it under advisement. I have enclosed with this letter the materials that you have provided to me, but I am holding on to the transcript for now. Please let me know if you have any questions, and I wish the best of luck to you.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Bryan,

Please be advised that today, September 17, 2014, we received the transcript in Shayla's case. We need to move quickly to shore up our representation agreement. I know you've been trying to secure funds, but we are now at the point where we need to get started. I really would like to help you and your family, so please contact me and let me know what arrangements you have been able to make. Otherwise, I will need to move to be relieved and then the Office of Indigent Defense will handle the appeal. I will need to know something by the end of the day, Wednesday, September 24, 2014. Please call at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth A. Franklin-Best
