ATTORNEYS FOR RESPONDENTS

SC Court of Appeals

The Respondents, by and through the undersigned, respectfully move, pursuant to Rule 234(b) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, this Honorable Court for an additional 30-day extension of time in which to file and serve the Respondents' initial brief on appeal and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. The grounds therefor are as follows:

1. The Respondents' initial brief and designation of matter are due October 17, 2014 currently.

2. The trial and post-trial motions hearing transcripts are several hundred pages long, and the Appellant's initial brief raises complex issues to which substantial attention is required.

3. Due to the undersigned's trial, etc., schedule, he has been unable to complete the review of the transcripts, adequately research the complex legal issues, and prepare the Respondents' initial brief and designation of matter.

4. If the requested extension is granted, the Respondents' initial brief and designation of matter will be due on or before November 17, 2014.

5. After consultation, counsel for the Appellant consents to this extension of time as confirmed in the attached e-mail chain.

WHEREFORE, the Respondents respectfully pray that this Honorable Court grant them an extension of 30 days in which to file an initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal.

Rene:

Would you be so kind as to consent to a second 30-day extension for the respondent's brief in the above? My schedule has been completely filled the past few weeks, and isn't going to ease up in time for me to get the brief in by Friday. Please let me know if this meets your approval.

Thanks,
Rob
