Re: State of South Carolina vs. Justin Sims
2010-GS-21-01427

Dear Ms. McCall,

This letter is to issue an apology for the delay in the delivery of the above referenced transcript. This transcript was placed in the USPS Mail Delivery on the 21st day of July, 2014. My understanding is that the transcript never arrived at your office. I received a notice from Desiree Allen on September 9th, asking about the status and stated that I would email the transcript to you as soon as I was able to recover it from a failing external hard drive where it was stored.

I received another notice from Desiree Allen on October 9th that you still had not received the transcript and realized that I had totally failed to send the transcript via email. I have tried to email it several times over the past week and have been unable to connect to the internet to do so due to some issues with my personal Internet Provider. I will be sending it to you via email today if the service is back up. If not I will reprint it and place it in the mail via certified mail for tracking tomorrow morning.

Once again, I apologize and appreciate your patience with me.

Sincerely,
