Re: Meyers v Walter R. Kaufman et al
12-CP-10-8423
Hearing of November 20, 2013
Before The Honorable Kristie Harrington

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Meyers:

I received a copy of your letter to Rosalyn Frierson dated July 29, 2014, on my return from an extended medical leave.

As confirmed by previous letters to you, I have received your request for a transcript of the hearing in the above-referenced matter. You have been provided with the amount necessary for a deposit to accept your transcript request, and informed that requests are not accepted without the required deposit. By necessity, this is an estimated amount because until a transcript is prepared there is no way of knowing the exact cost. Should the cost for the transcript exceed the required deposit amount, you will be notified. If the cost for preparing the transcript is less than the required amount, a refund will accompany the transcript on delivery. Deposits are calculated to be as close to the actual cost as I am able to estimate at this time.

To order the transcript, please remit a deposit in the amount of $107.50, payable to Deborah Garrison. Once your deposit is received, your request will be accepted and the transcript will be prepared and delivered within sixty days.

Sincerely,

Deborah Garrison
