

To the Clerk of Court,

October 14, 2014

I do thank you for addressing my concern. Primarily this letter is to inform the Court of my current address, being it has changed from the last time I received mail from the Court, so as to note in your records and me not be delayed notice of anything of importance that may toll time. That address is on the front of the envelope.

I also request that I receive notice of your receipt of this letter and, if permissible, could you inform me of whether or not this Court received my pro-se petition for Writ of Certiorari that I was permitted to file upon my appellate counsel filing a Johnson petition. That pro-se petition in question was dated July 30, 2014.

I really do appreciate you addressing my concerns as I patiently wait as the Court considers my appeal. I could only imagine the abundance of mail that comes in from those with concerns so it is much appreciated anything you do that eases me in my concerns. I pray blessings upon you and your concerns.

Respectfully,
Alfred Britford
