re: Breland v. SCDOT emails/letters

Dear Ms. Allen:

This letter is an attempt to clarify the time-line details as it pertains to our emails to each other in reference Mr. Richard Ness's communication to the South Carolina Court of Appeals in early October 2014, stating he had not received the Breland transcript.

I wrote a letter to you on October 8, 2014 and copied South Carolina Court of Appeals. You requested I sent Mr. Ness a copy of the letter. I mailed Mr. Ness's copy of the October 8, 2014 letter on October 10, 2014.

After many emails between us, I remain very frustrated.

While I mean no disrespect to Mr. Ness or anyone in the office of Ness and Jett, LLC, I strongly reiterate I printed the invoice in Orangeburg from a thumb drive on August 13, 2014, so it was either delivered that day or the next day, Thursday, August 14, 2014. I do not understand why he didn't have the transcript in early October.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Hilda M. Jordan, CVR-M
