Re: Wilson v. Dallas
Appellate Case No. 2013-001649

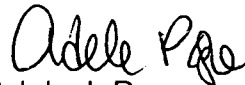

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of the letter of Ms. Gee to you in this matter dated October 22, 2014. While I do not agree with much of what is said, I believe that if counsel elects to raise these matters, they are appropriately made in a motion, rather than in a letter to the Clerk.

As a matter of information, I filed the Record on Appeal to facilitate my application to transfer this Case to the Supreme Court. I hope to file that application shortly – after I file another Record on Appeal, which is also due shortly.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours very truly,

Adele J. Pope
Appellant, Pro Se
