Argument

The Appellant Hereby objects to Respondents motion to file an initial Brief out of Time as follows

The Respondent Has not Given a valid Reason That can be substantiated to Allow them to file out of Time and is solely attempting to manipulate and delay Appellants attempt to gain his freedom. The SCARCP states that a time prescribed by these rules can only be extended by the court or a Justice. The Respondent did not deliberately file its Brief and has fail to provide Appellant with the Record on Appeal that he proposed for. Additionally Appellant has been prejudiced by the fact that his initial release date of Oct 7th 2013 has already passed.

Conclusion

The Respondents are a Professional Group of Lawyers that are well aware of what they are doing and attempting to do and Appellant should not be made to suffer by their manipulation and delay tactics - as he has throughout the whole grievance process for unexplained reasons. Wherefore Appellant respectfully request that this Court not consider the Respondents Initial Brief and proceed with this case without consideration of Respondents out of Time initial Brief and deny the motion to file out of Time.
