Re: The State v. James E. Wise
Appellate Case No. 2014-002320

Dear Mr. Wise:

This Court has received your petition for a writ of certiorari to review the decision of the South Carolina Court of Appeals in Appellate Case No. 2013-000196. This matter has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

In light of your indigent status, you will only need to file one copy of any document that you file with this Court in this matter. Of course, you will still need to serve the opposing counsel with a copy of any document that you send to this Court and provide a proof of service showing that this has occurred.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/HTMLFiles/2007-08-13-02.htm. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several loops and a long horizontal stroke extending to the right.
