

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Russell Goodwin, Claimant, Appellant,

v.

Employbridge dba Prologistix, Employer, and American Casualty Company of Reading PA, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2014-001676

ORDER

Appellant has filed a motion to file his notice of appeal out of time. After careful consideration, Appellant's motion is denied and this appeal is dismissed for failure to timely serve the notice of appeal. See Rule 203(b)(6), SCACR ("When a statute allows a decision of the administrative law court or agency (administrative tribunal) to be appealed directly to the Supreme Court or the Court of Appeals, the notice of appeal shall be served on the agency, the administrative law court (if it has been involved in the case) and all parties of record within thirty (30) days after receipt of the decision."); Rule 263(b), SCACR ("The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 243 may be extended or shortened by the appellate court, or by any judge or justice thereof." (emphasis added)); Mears v. Mears, 287 S.C. 168, 337 S.E.2d 206 (1985) (explaining the notice of appeal is a jurisdictional requirement, and the appellate courts have no authority to extend the time in which the notice of intent to appeal must be served).
