Amelia and Jenny K. lead me to believe he sent Proof of Service to them verifying he had answered my Appeal by sending a Notice to Dis-

in a week of his Answer being due on my Appeals. The Attorney lied to the court, No Proof

ORDER

Appellant filed a "Petition for Reconsideration," which this Court construes as a petition to rehear the dismissal of this appeal. After careful consideration of the petition for rehearing, the Court is unable to discover that any material fact or principle of law has been either overlooked or disregarded, and hence, there is no basis for granting a rehearing. Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is denied.

Opinion No. 27106
Heard February 8, 2012 - Filed April 4, 2012

REVERSED

Richard J. Breibart, The Law Firm of Richard Breibart, of Lexington, for Petitioner.

Harry A. Hancock, S.C. Dept. of Revenue, of Columbia, for Respondent.

JUSTICE HEARN: The State Law Enforcement Division (SLED) conducted a sting operation on the Blue Moon Sports Bar, a private club operated by Blue Moon of Newberry, Inc. After SLED's investigation, the Department of Revenue concluded Blue Moon's guest policy violated Section 7-401.4(J) through (K) of the South Carolina Code of Regulations and revoked Blue Moon's liquor license. The Administrative Law Court (ALC) reinstated Blue Moon's license, and the court of appeals reversed. S.C. Dep't of Revenue v. Blue Moon of Newberry, Inc., 387 S.C. 467, 473, 693 S.E.2d 21, 24 (Ct. Terms and Conditions of Access Overview: The South Carolina Appellate Court Public Index is a public access site for the South Carolina Appellate Court Case Management System. This site provides access to information regarding cases filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. On this site, a user is able to view events and other basic case information relating to those cases. Further, in most cases, the documents associated with an event in the case are available for viewing. The ability to search for and review information contained in the public index is a free public service.

Cases, events and documents that are non-public, sealed or confidential are not available for public viewing on this site. However, certain cases, events or documents that are not available online may be available for public viewing at the courthouse.

Recent entries made in a case by the Clerk of Court's office may not be immediately reflected on the public index. While court staff updates case information daily and makes every effort to enter case information in a timely manner, there are occasional delays between receiving documents and entry of case information into the Appellate Court Case Management System. To verify information obtained from this site or to obtain case information not available on this site, please contact the Clerk of Court's office of the appropriate court.

Cases Available: At the present time, the following case types are available on the South Carolina Appellate Court Public Index:

1. Appeals from the Court of Common Pleas (does not include Post-Conviction Relief cases).
2. Appeals from the Court of General Sessions.
3. Appeals from Administrative Tribunals such as the Administrative Law Court and the Workers' Compensation Commission.
4. Certiorari proceedings relating to the decisions of the Board of State Canvassers.

Information on a case will generally only be available if the case was pending or filed on or after May 1, 2012. Information regarding events and their associated documents will generally not be available for events that occurred prior to May 1, 2012.

Over time, the South Carolina Judicial Department intends to increase the types of cases that are available and to provide information on cases that were concluded prior to May 1, 2012. The ultimate goal is to provide web-based access which will approach the level of access available to the public at the courthouse.

Disclaimer: The South Carolina Judicial Department does not assume liability for inaccurate or delayed data, errors, or omissions on the public index. An individual has a right to request a register of deeds or clerk of court to remove, from an image or copy of an official record placed on a publicly available Internet web site or on a publicly available Internet web site used by a register of deeds or clerk of court to display public records, any social security, driver's license, state identification, passport, checking account, savings account, credit card, or debit card number, or personal identification (PIN) code, or passwords contained in an official record. 4. Copies of the promissory note and mortgage are attached as Exhibits A and B to this affidavit.

1. BORROWER'S PROMISE TO PAY

In return for a loan that I have received, I promise to pay U. S. $ 99,900.00 (this amount is called "principal"), plus interest, to the order of the Lender. The Lender is FIRST UNION MORTGAGE CORPORATION. I understand that the Lender may transfer this Note. The Lender or anyone who takes this Note by transfer and who is entitled to receive payments under this Note is called the "Note Holder."

2. INTEREST

Interest will be charged on unpaid principal until the full amount of principal has been paid. I will pay interest at a yearly rate of 7.750 %.

The interest rate required by this Section 2 is the rate I will pay both before and after any default described in Section 6(B) of this Note.

3. PAYMENTS

(A) Time and Place of Payments

I will pay principal and interest by making payments every month.

I will make my monthly payments on the 1st day of each month beginning on February 1 2000. I will make these payments every month until I have paid all of the principal and interest and any other charges described below that I may owe under this Note. My monthly payments will be applied to interest before principal. If, on January 1 2030, I still owe amounts under this Note, I will pay those amounts in full on that date, which is called the "maturity date."

I will make my monthly payments at 1100 CORPORATE CENTER DRIVE
RALEIGH, NC 27607-5066 or at a different place if required by the Note Holder.

(B) Amount of Monthly Payments

My monthly payment will be in the amount of U.S. $ 715.70

4. BORROWER'S RIGHT TO PREPAY

I have the right to make payments of principal at any time before they are due. A payment of principal only is known as a "prepayment." When I make a prepayment, I will tell the Note Holder in writing that I am doing so.

I may make a full prepayment or partial prepayments without paying any prepayment charge. The Note Holder will use all of my prepayments to reduce the amount of principal that I owe under this Note. If I make a partial prepayment, there will be no changes in the due date or in the amount of my monthly payment unless the Note Holder agrees in writing to those changes.

5. LOAN CHARGES

If a law, which applies to this loan and which sets maximum loan charges, is finally interpreted so that the interest or other loan charges collected or to be collected in connection with this loan exceed the permitted limits, then: (i) any such loan charge shall be reduced by the amount necessary to reduce the charge to the permitted limit; and (ii) any sums already collected from me which exceeded permitted limits will be refunded to me. The Note Holder may choose to make this refund by reducing the principal I owe under this Note or by making a direct payment to me. If a refund reduces principal, the reduction will be treated as a partial prepayment.

6. BORROWER'S FAILURE TO PAY AS REQUIRED

(A) Late Charge for Overdue Payments

If the Note Holder has not received the full amount of any monthly payment by the end of 15 calendar days after the date it is due, I will pay a late charge to the Note Holder. The amount of the charge will be 5.000 % of my overdue payment of principal and interest.

I will pay this late charge promptly but only once on each late payment.

(B) Default

If I do not pay the full amount of each monthly payment on the date it is due, I will be in default.

(C) Notice of Default

If I am in default, the Note Holder may send me a written notice telling me that if I do not pay the overdue amount by a certain date, the Note Holder may require me to pay immediately the full amount of principal which has not been paid and all the interest that I owe on that amount. That date must be at least 30 days after the date on which the notice is delivered or mailed to me.

(D) No Waiver By Note Holder

Even if, at a time when I am in default, the Note Holder does not require me to pay immediately in full as described above, the Note Holder will still have the right to do so if I am in default at a later time.

(E) Payment of Note Holder's Costs and Expenses

If the Note Holder has required me to pay immediately in full as described above, the Note Holder will have the right to be paid back by me for all of its costs and expenses in enforcing this Note to the extent not prohibited by applicable law. Those expenses include, for example, reasonable attorney's fees.

(F) The Note Holder may collect a processing fee for any check received by Note Holder which is dishonored and returned as provided by state law or charged by national banks from time to time.

7. GIVING OF NOTICES

Unless applicable law requires a different method, any notice that must be given to me under this Note will be given by delivering it or by mailing it by first class mail to me at the Property Address above or at a different address if I give the Note Holder a notice of my different address.

Any notice that must be given to the Note Holder under this Note will be given by mailing it by first class mail to the Note Holder at the address stated in Section 3(A) above or at a different address if I am given a notice of that different address.

This matter came before the Court on January 10, 2014, for a hearing on all of Defendant Alice Roseboro's pending motions. Present at the hearing was Thomas E. Lydon, on behalf of Plaintiff. Ms. Roseboro was given notice of the hearing, but did not attend.

Having reviewed the motions and the supporting documentation filed by Defendant Alice Roseboro, I find and conclude as follows: 2

1. The notice of the hearing served by counsel for Plaintiff was proper. The date and time of the hearing was set with the knowledge and approval of the Special Referee, so any objections Ms. Roseboro has regarding the manner in which the hearing was noticed are overruled.

2. Several of the motions filed by Ms. Roseboro appear to be dispositive in nature. However, the dispositive motions are not supported by affidavits. Therefore, they must be denied.

3. Several of Ms. Roseboro's motions request that a default judgment be entered against Plaintiff. However, Plaintiff timely filed a Reply to the counterclaims alleged against it, so the application for default judgment is denied.

R20F2

4. Ms. Roseboro has filed a motion to strike and a motion to compel with regard to Plaintiff's responses to her interrogatories. Plaintiff has agreed to supplement its responses to interrogatories by January 20, 2014. Therefore, this motion is moot

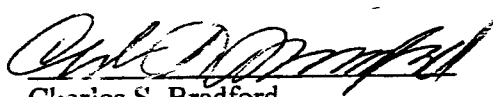

5. Ms. Roseboro has filed several motions for hindrance in which she asks that Plaintiff and its attorneys be sanctioned and held in contempt of court. Having reviewed the pleadings, motions, and supporting documents filed in this matter, I find nothing in the record to support sanctions or the holding of any party in contempt of court. Accordingly, these motions are denied.

6. Regarding the motion to compel review of transcript, Ms. Roseboro has the right to obtain a transcript, at her expense, from any hearing in this matter.

7. Regarding the motion to amend or for more definite statement, based on my review of the motion, it is unclear what the basis for the motion is or what relief is being sought. Therefore, the motion is denied.

8. Ms. Roseboro has also filed a motion to strike order of reference. Having reviewed the Order of Reference, I find that it complies with all of the applicable rules of civil procedure, and no appeal has been taken from the Order. Accordingly, this motion is denied

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
