Re: The State v. Aaron J. Carter
Appellate Case No. 2014-000697

Dear Mr. Carter:

The Court has received your motion to reinstate this appeal. It has come to our attention that you are represented in this matter by Wallis April Alves. Pursuant to Rule 264 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the attorney of record in the court below remains counsel on appeal until withdrawal is approved. Because you are represented by counsel, we are returning your filings to you. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel."). If your attorney would like to file a motion to reinstate your appeal, it must be actually received by this Court within 15 days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be remitted to the circuit court.

Very truly yours,
