Re: State v. Antonio Collins, Appellate Case No.: 2013-002343

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The initial brief of appellant and designation of matter in the above case is due to be served and filed on September 17, 2014. However, we have discovered that we need two additional transcripts. On September 3, 2014, Mr. Collins, contacted me by phone inquiring about the transcripts concerning additional pre-trial matters, but he was unable to provide me with the necessary information to order the transcripts. On that date, I wrote to Mr. Collins' trial attorney, Trasi Campbell, Esquire, asking about any pretrial hearings not occurring on the date the case was called for trial. On September 8, 2014, Ms. Campbell responded to my letter by email informing me of two pretrial hearings. We have now ordered those transcripts.

I respectfully request that the time limits be held in abeyance pending receipt of the two transcripts. Copies of our transcript requests are attached. If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan B. Hackett
