Respondents.	:	TO DISMISS APPELLANT'S APPEAL
	:	AND MOTION TO STRIKE

COMES NOW, Stephanie Stewart, Appellant, (hereinafter "Stewart"), Pro-Se, moving for an extension of time to file returns to the Respondents' aforementioned motions filed on October 30, 2014 and November 4, 2014. The subject pleadings are the Respondents' 2nd and 3rd offense based procedural defenses advanced to this Honorable Court to terminate Stewart's appeal issues, prior to review, based upon the merits. Based on the personal vitriolic veracity of the Respondents' allegations towards Stewart, the unexpected timeliness of the filings in relation to Stewart's current graduate school coursework obligations, and a necessity to file proper returns to each pleading, an extension of time up to and including November 30, 2014 is requested. Of note, Stewart filed her Initial Appeal Brief on October 23, 2014 prior to the Respondents' filing of the two additional pleadings. But for the Respondent's two instant pleadings, Stewart is fully prepared for the Court to start the review process of adjudicating her issues. However, the disposition the Respondents' now seek from this Court requires a return to show the Court the Respondents' allegations are simply wrong. Respectfully, Stewart moves this Honorable Court to issue an order GRANTING her the requested time so that she may respond accordingly.

Dated this 7th day of November 2014.

Respectfully Submitted,
