REQUEST FOR EXTENSION

The Petitioner, Paul A. Smith, hereby move before this Honorable Court to apprise the Court that the Petitioner did not receive this Court's correspondence until October 27, 2014. The Petitioner contends that four days had been lost, that which the Petitioner is not at fault. Hence, the Petitioner hereby move before this Honorable Court and request that this Honorable Court grant an extension so that the Petitioner may file and adequately provide the explanation required by Rule 243(c) within twenty days for reasons being that (1) Due to the institutional rules regarding access to the institutional law library at Broad River Correctional Inst. designates specific days for certain dorms to access the law library. And also security measures were previously implemented which had caused a dormitory lock down and did so hamper my ability to meet the Court ordered deadline.
