OVERNIGHT MAIL

RE: Matthew H. Willimon, Jr. And Elizabeth Willimon vs. Jake
Gilstrap, Thomas R. Gilstrap, Sr., John Gilstrap, Yvonne G.
Smith, Jason A. Smith, and Patricia Gilstrap
Case No.: 2014-001233

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I represent the appellants and I want to address one matter regarding the printed Record on Appeal, which was filed last Thursday and make sure that I handled this matter correctly. After I received the respondent's initial brief and proposed designation of matter, I wanted to include the notice of appeal and proof of service in the record on appeal. Since these documents were not set forth in Appellants' designation of matter, I contacted Mr. Robinson, who is respondents' counsel, and proposed that these documents be included and he consented. I believed that this consultation and proposal and consent by respondents' counsel complied with rule 210 and allowed me to include these documents. Therefore, the documents are in the printed Record of Appeal as filed.

While working on the final briefs yesterday, I realized that I did not provide any written verification of the subsequent proposal and consultation and consent with Mr. Robinson. Therefore, I am submitting this letter to document that I made a subsequent proposal to include the notice of appeal and proof of service and that Mr. Robinson consented. While I think that I complied with the rules for the Record on Appeal and only included matters which were proposed, if I need to take any other action, please let me know. I am providing this information out of an abundance of caution as I do not want my clients to be prejudiced.

Thank you for any assistance that you can give me.

Sincerely yours,

ALEXANDER LAW FIRM
