RE: Appeal No.: 2011198086

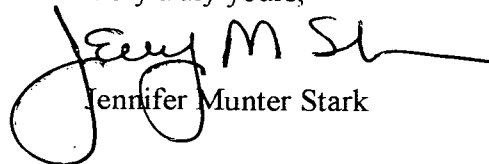

Dear Ms. Glover,

Enclosed is information that will assist you with your pro se appeal matter which has been sent to you several times, the most recently on April 24, 2012. I have also enclosed copies of letters sent to you in September, October and November 2011 which provides the information you need to order the transcript of the Summary Judgment Hearing.

To order the transcript, you will need the information on the letter to Ms. Haffenden dated September 23, 2011. The entire process of how to appeal pro se is fully explained on the South Carolina Circuit Court website. This is important information and you should review it as soon as possible.

All of the documents we possessed that related to either your appeal or the original case were copied and placed in the file that you retrieved from our office in November, 2011. I would suggest you consult that file for future documents relating to your pro se appeal.

Very truly yours,

Jennifer Munter Stark
