Re: The State v. Quentin Raymar Price
Appellate Case No. 2014-002208

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please accept this letter in lieu of a formal return to the motion to associate counsel in the above-captioned case. The South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense does not oppose being associated for the costs of paying for transcripts and printing. Meaning, this office does not oppose an order that would require Indigent Defense to pay for the cost of transcripts, and for the cost of printing. The Appellate Division opposes being associated as counsel, however, since we do not handle appeals from Magistrate's Court. Meaning, this office opposes a request for an order that would require this office to be involved in the actual printing and binding of any documents.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Dudek
Chief Appellate Defender
