

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Albarr-Ali Abdullah, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-001696

ORDER

---

Respondent has filed a motion to dismiss, arguing Appellant failed to timely serve the notice of appeal. Appellant's notice of appeal, filed with this court, indicates he received written notice of the Administrative Law Court's decision on June 12, 2014. However, Appellant failed to serve the notice of appeal on Respondent until July 30, 2014. Accordingly, this appeal is dismissed. See Rule 203(b)(6), SCACR (stating an appellant must serve the notice of appeal from a decision of the Administrative Law Court on all parties within thirty days of receipt of the decision); Rule 263(b), SCACR ("The time prescribed by these Rules for performing any act except the time for serving the notice of appeal under Rules 203 and 227 may be extended . . . ." (emphasis added)); Mears v. Mears, 287 S.C. 168, 169, 337 S.E.2d 206, 207 (1985) (explaining service of the notice of appeal is a jurisdictional requirement, and the appellate courts have no authority to extend the time in which the notice must be served).
