1 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Black, what have you got.

2 MR. BLACK: Thank you, Your Honor, if it please the 3 Court. Before you is Larry Gene Parris who is here on 4 probation warrant W-30-13-86. Original indictments, 5 06-30-430, 426, 425, 427 and 428. Every one of these is 6 for one count of forgery, valued less than $5,000.00 7 dollars. Your Honor, if I may, Mr. Parris has filed on 8 behalf of himself a motion to represent himself, pro se, 9 in this hearing. I was informed right after lunch that 10 Kate Kendall of the Laurens County Public Defenders office
11 of the South Carolina Bar would be standing with him. I
12 just want to put on the record, Your Honor, that the State 13 has no objection to her standing by in an advisory 14 capacity. Your Honor, he was originally sentenced on 15 October 11th, 2007 on all of these counts of forgery by 16 the Honorable Judge Brooks Goldsmith. He was sentenced to 17 5 years suspended upon the service of time served and 2
18 years of probation. All of the indictments were to run 19 concurrent. Special conditions, the Department
20 administered, the Court ordered restitution in the amount 21 of $6,120.00 dollars, fines, costs and assessments, given 22 credit for 31 days time served. Probation begins upon 23 release from jail. His current residence, Your Honor, is 24 the Johnson Detention Center in Laurens, South Carolina.
25 Prior to that he maintained residence at [REDACTED].

1 Since returning to South Carolina with the exception of 2 his going to Michigan without consent in September of 3 2013, he currently draws SSI benefits but has done some 4 side work since he has been back in South Carolina on 5 probation. Last restitution payment was made May of 2012.
6 Although he draws SSI and has claimed to have worked odd 7 jobs he has made no other effort to pay on his financial 8 obligations. Your Honor, February the 25th of, I am 9 sorry, let me back up. September the 14th of 2011 he 10 failed to report upon release from the Michigan prison
11 system. He was in arrears on restitution, supervision 12 fees and surcharge accounts, failed to follow advice and 13 instructions of his agent. On September 14th of 2011 a 14 consent order was signed by Your Honor, ordered to 15 continue under supervision, extend probation for 3 years
16 to the full 5 year term giving a new end date of January 17 the 18th of 2016. Probation terminated upon payment.

18 THE COURT: Ms. Kendall, why has he been reporting so 19 sporadic before. I am sorry, should I be talking to him?

20 MS. KENDALL: Well, I just want to let the Court know 21 why I am standing up here. I have stood beside Larry, Mr.
22 Parris, at the last hearing. He wanted to represent 23 himself, he did not totally agree on what the violations 24 were. But I met with him at the jail just to ensure that 25 he wanted to represent himself and I told him I would

1 stand next to him if there were any questions or I may 2 could assist the Court or Mr. Parris.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Parris, I just read briefly the 4 report. You made two payments on restitution in about two 5 and a half years. You have been locked up for a period of 6 that and you report sporadically. Tell me what is going 7 on.

8 MR. PARRIS: Your Honor, the reason, I haven't been 9 on SSI the whole time. When I first came down here it was 10 like in 2012 when I started my benefits. I didn't really 11 have a place to live, I was living with my mother. I was 12 living with my mother and helping her because my 13 stepfather had died. And whenever they say that I didn't 14 report, when I didn't report when I got released from 15 Michigan, the reason I hadn't reported was because when I 16 got out up there I wasn't released, I was on parole. And 17 I was the one that took the initiative to request for 18 interstate contact from my supervision to this County so I 19 could start my probation. And while I was, when I first 20 came to report here I saw Ms. Anna and she requested that 21 I sign this consent order. And I told her I didn't want 22 to do that.

23 THE COURT: That was two years ago, I am not holding 24 you in fault for that. I am talking about what you have 25 done since then.

1 MR. PARRIS: Whenever I left her that day I was 2 suppose to report to him and I didn't know that. So
3 whenever me and Mr. Black met up and I started reporting 4 to him. At that time I didn't have no benefits or 5 anything, I was just living with my mother, helping her.

6 THE COURT: All right, since February 13th which was 7 last February when Judge Addy revoked you, where have you 8 been since then.

9 MR. PARRIS: I got a, since the time I have been 10 staying with my mother I bought some land right in front
11 of my mother. I am trying to get my things together. You 12 know, I have severe depression, I have some serious mental 13 issues, I was incarcerated by the Court for a mental 14 disability here in May. And that is when this warrant 15 right here was taken out on me but it was from the period 16 of May to September and I just got out like in the middle 17 of May, right before I was suppose to report in May. I
18 was committed to the Marshall Pickens Mental Institute 19 involuntarily, by court order.

20 THE COURT: And how long were you up there.

21 MR. PARRIS: I stayed there for like 20 something 22 days, about 26 days.

23 THE COURT: That was May?

24 MR. PARRIS: Yes, sir.

25 THE COURT: Where have you been since May?

1 MR. PARRIS: I have been at home. I did leave, I did 2 leave Laurens but I didn't leave the State. I told my 3 stepfather and my stepfather is the reason that I went to 4 that mental institution to start with. He has been on me, 5 I have got a new stepfather.

6 THE COURT: Oh, you got a new one.

7 MR. PARRIS: My other stepfather. I was there
8 helping my mother for a year or so. But then when he came 9 into the picture things started changing dramatically. I 10 am not used to change, Judge. Seriously, I have been in 11 prison all of my life and I ain't use to change. And 12 anyway, things started changing, he started interfering 13 with my, with what was going on in my life at the time.
14 Things started changing so drastically that I couldn't 15 keep up. But I have severe depression, I won't even go 16 outside my house, I won't even get up and go eat. That is 17 the kind of depression that I have. I am afraid to get 18 into society when I am like that. But I have been clean 19 as far as drugs go for the last two and a half years, 20 thank God for that, for Share House in Detroit. And that 21 was when I was in Detroit on parole. And I have been 22 clean since then, I haven't committed no crimes other than 23 a misdemeanor for a driving offense in over two and a half 24 years. Well, I take that back, since I came to this court
25 last time in 2007, I have not committed any crimes. But I

1 spent a lot of time in prison in Michigan and I keep 2 trying to address that issue and he just addressed some of 3 them. When I was up there I did--

4 MS. KENDALL: And I apologize to interject and this 5 may help speed things along. Part of I think is Mr.
6 Parris' frustration is, he was in Michigan and received a 7 5 year sentence. When he was up there he had a citation
8 from probation for not reporting and that partially ended 9 up spending longer time in jail because of a wrongly 10 issued citation and probably the easiest thing in all 11 honesty would have been to receive a concurrent sentence 12 and just be done. And I think that is part of his 13 frustration. And that didn't happen and he came back and 14 signed a consent order to extend the probationary period.

15 THE COURT: All right.

16 MR. PARRIS: Back in October when I first got locked 17 up I filed a motion to try to get that time that I had 18 served because in all I have served, whenever I came here
19 I didn't have no other charges pending on me anywhere.
20 Michigan hadn't even taken out the warrant, I came here 21 and turned myself in for a bench warrant in 2007 to 22 rectify all the legal issues that I had that was making 23 run and an erratic life so I could change my, straighten 24 my life out. I came here and turned myself in. I was 25 here for like two and a half weeks and they came here and

1 served a warrant on me from Michigan and they took a 2 warrant out on me when I got here, a week after I got here
3 they took the warrant out on me. Those charges were dated 4 a year before that. While I was in the county jail I 5 waived extradition and everything so that I could 6 straighten my life out, get it all taken care of no matter 7 what it took I was ready to take care of everything and 8 straighten my life out because I spent all of my life in 9 prison. So I turned myself in here, they extradited me 10 after I got out of the courtroom, Mr. Goldsmith gave me my 11 5 years suspended to 2 years of probation. I told him, I
12 said, Your Honor, I have got another charge in Michigan 13 that I have already waived extradition to. I tried to get 14 him to sentence me a straight time sentence and he didn't.
15 He said it would be all right. So I go and they extradite
16 me to Michigan. When I got to Michigan they gave me 5
17 years, 19 months to 5 years. I have all of that right
18 here if you need to see it. They gave me 19 months to 5 19 years there straight time. I said, okay, I will go do the 20 19 months, they let me out on parole and I get to take 21 care of everything then. So I did 12 months, I was 22 entered into a program called MPRI, Michigan Parole
23 Reentry Initiative where I go through 6 months of a 24 certain program because of my mental illness, because of 25 that and because of my long term of incarceration and

1 stuff they wanted to make sure I was straight before I got 2 out on the street including finding me a home and 3 everything up there. Well, as soon as I got to the parole
4 place and started my program, 3 months into it, it is a 6 5 month program, 3 months into South Carolina Department of 6 Probation, Parole and Pardon Service issued a warrant 7 against me for violating probation, for not being, for not 8 reporting when I got released from the Laurens County jail 9 which I was extradited to the State of Michigan. I even 10 have a letter of apology from the officer that took the 11 warrant out on me for doing that because she did it at the 12 time, right in the middle of my parole hearings were going 13 on. So they gave, they denied me parole three weeks 14 later. I got, where they took me out of the program, took 15 me out of the living unit for that program and put me in 16 the regular population again. And I wound up serving 40
17 months there. 40 months, then when I got out on parole, I 18 did 18 months on parole for the State of Michigan on that 19 5 year sentence. I did 18 months parole on that sentence
20 and successfully completed that sentence after serving 58
21 months, 40 in prison and 18 on parole. And then I came 22 down here and six months after I got out on parole I 23 volunteered to come down here and start this. And I have 24 been on parole basically here for 33 something months, 25 since January of 2011. And they have got no warrant or

1 anything to toll that time in between there except for 2 these two. And that is what I am saying, I know it is 3 complicated, Your Honor, and everything but I have served
4 so much time. They made, with the order that you signed, 5 extending my probation to the 5 years, now I am going to 6 wind up doing like 11 years on a 5 year period. And I 7 know, according, in Robertson versus State it says, Your 8 Honor, that I am entitled to that time. That is the South
9 Carolina Supreme Court, I have got a copy of it right here 10 if you would like to see it. You want me to read it to 11 you?

12 THE COURT: No. How much do you think he has got 13 left on this, Mr. Black?

14 MR. PARRIS: Your Honor, may I say something else?

15 THE COURT: Hang on.

16 MR. BLACK: It looks like 5 years minus 10 days, Your 17 Honor. He was originally sentenced to 5 years, excuse me, 18 he was given credit for time served, 31 days. So, 4 19 years, 10 months and 20 days.

20 THE COURT: And whatever time he has earned since he 21 has been back up here.

22 MR. BLACK: Sir?

23 THE COURT: Whatever time he has earned since he has 24 been back up here, right?

25 MR. BLACK: Yes sir, since October 14th, that is two

1 more months.

2 THE COURT: What were you charged for up in Michigan,
3 you picked up the 19, 5 years, you had to do the 40 months 4 on because, what was that on? '

5 MR. PARRIS: DWI, I was drinking and I had a bottle
6 in my hand, and when the officer tried to pull me over I 7 didn't stop. I kept going, I was trying to get out of 8 Michigan at the time, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Okay. You did 40 months on all of that?

10 MR. PARRIS: Yes, sir. I have got proof of it, Your 11 Honor, if you would like to see it.

12 THE COURT: Is there any restitution to pay?

13 MR. BLACK: There is still a lot of restitution still 14 left to pay, Your Honor. He has $5,760.00 dollar balance.

15 THE COURT: You have got a messed up case.

16 MR. PARRIS: I know, sir. Trust me, Your Honor, I am
17 sorry I had to put this off on you like this. It is no, 18 if someone is being depressed just for so long, it feels 19 like it is outweighing, you understand what I am saying.
20 And that is my point here, it is causing me a lot of 21 disturbance and it is also affecting my mental status as 22 well.

23 MR. BLACK: If I may, Your Honor. Just getting back 24 to the time that he had served in Michigan which seems to 25 be a main issue for his case. I do have here South

1 Carolina Court of Appeals, 2005, State v. Hackett. Which 2 says a probationer cannot obtain credit against a 5 year 3 period for any period of time during which he was not in 4 fact under probationary supervision. And, again, he did 5 mention State v. Miller, 2013, a period of probation is 6 tolled while the probationer is a fugitive from justice or 7 serving a sentence imposed by another Court. The State's 8 stance is, since he already has a hold on him out of the 9 State of Michigan when he was given this sentence in 2007,
10 that his time did not actually start until he was released
11 on parole in the State of Michigan which was 2011.

12 MR. PARRIS: May I, Your Honor. Your Honor, I also 13 have the case law too that, Hackett, where his 14 probationary periods of where he was a fugitive from 15 justice and stuff doesn't apply in my case because at the 16 time I turned myself in here this case was pending before 17 that one and I was not a fugitive. I waived the 18 extradition and that charge was pending before I came to 19 this courtroom before Judge Goldsmith. And it was known 20 to him and the probation people who were standing in the 21 courtroom when Judge Goldsmith finished me that I had that 22 out-of-state charge. That Hackett case is just irrelevant 23 as well where it is saying that I am not allowed that 24 sentence on the secondary sentence because that is if I 25 commit another crime after I have served this time. They

1 are thinking that I have the crime in Michigan after I had 2 been sentenced here. And that is what Hackett applies to 3 and that is simply not the case here.

4 MR. BLACK: That is not our position at all, Your 5 Honor. Since Michigan arrested him first and had first 6 dibs on him then they maintained primary jurisdiction 7 until he was completed up there before he could be 8 returned. And again he wants to go back to Hackett, Your 9 Honor, nobody said anything about him being a fugitive
10 from justice. The last part of the statement that I read 11 earlier said, serving a sentence imposed by another Court.

12 THE COURT: Anything else, Ms. Kendall?

13 MS. KENDALL: Your Honor, I think, an argument equity
14 of the timing of everything is just our situation that Mr.
15 Parris finds himself in.

16 THE COURT: What I think I am going to do. The 17 fairness part is what I am trying to come out with. I 18 understand what you were sentenced to here, probation is 19 commenced upon your release from prison is what I
20 understand the original sentence was from Judge Goldsmith.
21 And then you went to Michigan and got tied up there. I am 22 going to revoke 18 months, that is kind of giving you
23 credit for Michigan time and giving you, ending this case
24 here. All right.

25 MR. BLACK: Civil judgment for the restitution, Your

1 Honor?

2 THE COURT: Yes and credit for the days since October
3 13th, 14th.

4 MR. PARRIS: May I ask the Court something, sir. If 5 I file an appeal today, is there any way I can get an 6 appeal bond until this is actually in the Supreme Court, 7 sir?

8 THE COURT: You can call your notice to intent to 9 appeal and you will be entitled to argue for an appeal 10 bond.

11 MR. PARRIS: And who would I do that to?

12 THE COURT: You can make a motion here.

13 MR. PARRIS: An appeal bond here?

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MR. PARRIS: If you revoke my probation, if I file my 16 notice of appeal today is there any way that I can get 17 that motion over here before you leave the end of the 18 week?

19 THE COURT: Sure.

20 MR. PARRIS: And I would sure appreciate that. Like 21 I said, I haven't been a nuisance other than not 22 reporting, I haven't been a nuisance to society.

23 THE COURT: You get it filed.

24 MR. PARRIS: Let me ask one more question. Because I
25 know when you step down I am done. I had the motion

1 already pending in court and I want to know if the Court
2 actually has my motion that I haven't heard on yet. It is 3 a motion to amend.

4 THE COURT: A motion to amend what.

5 MR. PARRIS: My sentence and judgment. I would at 6 least like some kind of notification on that where I can 7 at least make an exception to that so I can raise that in 8 appeal.

9 THE COURT: I have glanced over your motion. I don't 10 want to prejudice your argument or anything. This can be 11 heard, the State would have to be notified.

12 MR. PARRIS: You couldn't do that ex parte, since it 13 is really a matter of law--

14 THE COURT: He is not a lawyer, he is not working for 15 the Attorney Generals office so he is not the one. The 16 Solicitor's office is not the one either. The Attorney 17 Generals office is who would make this argument. But part 18 of my rationale for my revocation is you did 60 months
19 here less 2, roughly 58. You did 40 up there, I revoked 20 18, there is your math. So that is kind of what I did, if 21 that makes sense.

22 MR. PARRIS: Is there any way I can get you to order 23 that though, that I get a 40 month credit time served?

24 THE COURT: I just did. I revoked 18, the case is 25 over and your restitution goes to a civil judgment so I am

1 in essence doing exactly that.

2 MR. PARRIS: Okay.

3 THE COURT: This case will be over once you do the 4 18, you get credit since October 14th, the case is over 5 with.

6 MR. PARRIS: Thank you, Judge, I want to get rid of 7 it.

8 THE COURT: Let Ms. Kendall explain it.

9 MR. PARRIS: I understand what you are saying.

10 THE COURT: If you want an appeal that is up to you.

11 MR. PARRIS: Thank you, Judge.

12 MR. BLACK: Thank you, Your Honor.
